

Trustee

- Praveen Narayan Tumpalla is a journalist and a social doer. He is the man in charge for Franca Lingua Communication, a proprietorship. His interest and passion for community welfare and development is what he sincerely follows. Owner/Editor of a bi monthly publication named Bangalured Your companion, he initiated social programs for awareness 'bhrasthachaar ko thenga' / 'thumbs down to corruption' being one of them undertaken to support crusaders against corruption.
- Praveen invests a lot of time and energy in social problem solving in the urban environment. Apart from publishing he provides consultation for communities, institutions and organisations on municipal solid waste management, a bane of present times.
- His keen intent for the betterment of masses is what encouraged him to take up the responsibility as Trustee at Ashankura, supporting the not for profit in addressing issues relating migrating construction laborers and their families.