

Founder, Chairman

- Hemant Kumar T.T has dedicated more close to two decades in the field of social welfare. A top notch social activist, his fights with the state to provide for the marginalized migrating communities are a boon for the community. Man with a golden heart, he has overseen the growth and establishment of many youngsters with a strong base in education. Hemant honed his skills working 19 years for the prestigious Concerned for Working Children which was not long ago nominated for the Nobel in 2012. Hemant takes personal interest in managing and guiding assistance and other efforts, a huge advantage as he personally sees to his words turn into action to provide for a better world for the deprived.
